

The Heart of the Forest

Magical Stories from Scotland and Asturias

The Busgosu, the guardian of the forest in Asturias, invites us to travel to the heart of the forest.

Jennifer Ramsay, will guide us on this adventure with stories of magical beings from Scotland, the land of her birth, and magical beings from Asturias, where she now lives.

We'll hear how fairies and other magical creatures are in grave danger and how they need the help of little human beings who are pure of heart to listen to their stories.

We'll discover that if we look after the forest and all her inhabitants, the forest will look after us and perhaps we'll find a little gift from the heart of the forest to help us remember this.
