

My Celtic World

Tales for Adults and Teenagers

Summary

‘My Celtic World’ is a magical storytelling performance set in the Highlands and islands of Scotland.

Following the traditional rune of Celtic hospitality ‘When a visitor arrives there is food in the eating place, drink in the drinking place and stories and music in the listening place’.

Jennifer Ramsay invites us to the listening place around the fire in her gran’s house to hear legends, riddles and secrets of this green, mysterious land.

We’ll visit a haunted cemetery where a giant ghost left his mark on the history of Scotland. We’ll hear one of the legendary Jack stories and sense the respect that the Celts had for Nature. And we’ll finish off with Robert Burns’s famous poem ‘Auld Lang Syne’.
