

The Giant Carrot

Little Tales for Little People 2-6 years old

Summary

A colourful, participative version of a Russian folktale that is popular with children in the UK. Through story, song and rhyme we follow grandpa's adventure on his farm where he tries to grow a giant carrot.

When the carrot becomes too big for granpa to pull up the farm animals come to help, highlighting the importance of cooperation and teamwork.

But it is the tiny, little mouse, who provides the creative solution, so that granpa can finally have a tasty carrot for lunch.

Artistic & Technical Information

Storyteller: Jennifer Ramsay

Duration: 30 minutes.

Public: Children between 2 and 6.

Languages: Spanish or English.

Requirements: An open-plan space and a big table.

Jennifer Ramsay

 info@storyarte.com

 +34 670 917 487

 www.storyarte.com

 Nava, Asturias, Spain

